

Monday Vehicle Day: What Scores

After reset, Monday is Vehicle Day in Alliance Duel.

One of the biggest mistakes players make is not understanding the difference between opening a module box and using the module inside it.

The Rule That Changes Everything

You score points for OPENING module boxes.

You do NOT score points for USING the modules inside them.

Opening a module box on Tuesday, Thursday, or another day means giving up the Monday points you could have earned from opening it.

The Jackpot: Orange Module Boxes

Orange Module Boxes are one of Monday's biggest scoring opportunities.

If you receive one during the week, resist the temptation to open it.

Save it for Monday.

What Scores on Monday

According to the State 775 guidance:

- Opening Module Boxes
- Orange Module Boxes
- Using Golden Wrenches
- Using Modification Blueprints
- Radar Tasks
- Killing Zombies
- Rallying Boomers

Prioritize Boomers

Boomers are worth significantly more than normal zombies according to the supplied guidance.

Hunt Boomers first and rally the larger ones with your alliance.

Everyone who joins the rally can score.
